

CHAUTAUQUA'S MANAGER HERE

The Annual Event Opens
On Friday—Ministers
Are Back of It.

M. C. Reed, superintendent for the El Paso Chautauqua, which opens Friday, arrived in El Paso Tuesday and joined the local committee in completing plans for the success of the Chautauqua.

This is the fourth year of the Chautauqua. Rotary introduced the Chautauqua to El Paso the first year and fathered it a second year. Last year the Chautauqua was brought here by a committee of citizens, most of them Rotarians.

This year the ministers of El Paso are back of the movement, assisted by their congregations, and the sale of seats is reported as excellent.

There will be no matinee events this year—only night performances. The program this year includes some of the best Chautauqua talent in the country, headed by Adam Bede, the famous "humorist of the house," as he was known when a member of Congress; "Private Peat," the noted Canadian fighter and author; Dr. Joseph Clark, "the humor of the Russian revolution," and other men and women nationally famous.

One of these is Miss Mae Gordon, who comes to Chautauqua with readiness and child impressions. She

Rotary Show Is To Be Staged This Evening

McStay Recovers From Illness—No Opposition For Wednesday Night.

Doctors' orders have been going into and out of room 402, Hotel Sheldon, all day and as a result, "Bill" McStay, premier and man for the Rotary minstrel announced this afternoon that he would be ready for "the big show" at the Texas grand this evening. McStay was taken suddenly ill Sunday evening, but he immediately went to his bed and, though a bit weak, asserted this afternoon that he would be ready for business tonight. "Mack" was tenderly and solicitously looked after by the other minstrel men, for without McStay and his "Nobody" song, there was fear that the minstrel would be seriously impaired in strength. With "Mack" ready for the job, nothing stands in the way of a finished performance this evening.

No Opposition Wednesday.
And there is further rejoicing in the hearts of Rotarians, for there is to be no soldier entertainment Wednesday evening. The Rotarians had feared that the plan for the entertainment of the returning overseas men would interfere with the attendance at the minstrel Wednesday evening, but the overseas men will not arrive in time for the entertainment that evening, so all El Paso will be free to attend the second performance of the Rotary minstrel. As the money to be raised from the minstrel performance is to be used to advertise El Paso at the Salt Lake City convention of International Rotary, it is felt that everybody is interested and will be glad of a chance to attend.

Notable Guests.

Notable guests will be present at the performance this evening, including the governors of Arizona and New Mexico, each of whom will have a box; Gen. James B. Ewing, commander of the El Paso military district; Maj. Richard F. Burgess, Sam Dreken and the commander of the Juarez garrison, Col. Augustin Mori, who is to occupy a box as the guest of E. M. Dow, American consul in Juarez.

While most of the seats have been sold for tonight, there are some choice ones left for the Wednesday night performance. The curtain will rise promptly at 8:15, according to W. R. Finch, manager of the show.

The minstrel will parade this afternoon, headed by the Boy Scout file and drum corps.

is one of the leaders of her profession. No other artist is in greater demand for Chautauqua audiences. Miss Gordon's clear high voice runs the gamut in the expression of strong emotion, sparkling comedy and delicate pathos. There is said to be more than artistry in her work—there is real individuality.

We join with El Paso in welcoming home, not only our own boys that are back from service, but those who are passing through and those who are to be demobilized at Camp Biene.

MODERN MAN AT THE UNIQUE

The Inconsistencies of Husbands and Oversights
Of Wives Laid Bare.

"Modern Husband," a social drama with an atmosphere that savors of modernism, featuring Henry R. Wall, Chas. Dolbey and Ethel Fleming, will open tomorrow at the Unique for a three days' engagement. "Modern Husband" is said to get far away from the path followed by former plays of this kind, being purely a domestic drama in which the lives of two couples are linked by the inconsistencies of the husbands and the oversights of the wives.

The actress, who also more is retaining the lofty position he attained in society before the draft came and carried him off, receives a scathing condemnation in "Modern Husband."

The acting of Henry Wall is never more compelling than in this picture. By many it is considered his greatest work since "The Birth of a Nation."—Adv.

TODAY'S AMUSEMENTS

GRACIAN—FALSE FACES.
"The False Faces" is a Greek drama that opened yesterday and impressed large audiences who saw it there as much as it did those who saw it at its previous presentation when it was shown at the El Paso theater recently.

"False Faces" is indeed a wonderful production. It is a seven reels and made by the master director, Thomas H. Ince. It is unusually fast in action and sensational and thrilling to a high degree and tells an absorbing story that for tenacity of interest has seldom been equaled on the screen.

"False Faces" is being shown at the Gracian theater just two more days, today and tomorrow. By all means don't overlook this great picture.—Adv.

ELLANAY—GERALDINE FARRAR.

Those who failed to see Geraldine Farrar in her latest and greatest picture, "The Struggle," at the Ellanay theater the past two days, have certainly missed one of the best pictures that have been shown at the theater in some time.

The Ellanay management wishes to call attention of its patrons to the fact that this picture will be shown at that theater and urged all those who have not yet seen it, to see it by all means.

Tomorrow the Ellanay takes pleasure in presenting Maxine Elliott in the screen's first great morality play, "The Eternal Magdalene."—Adv.

WIGWAM—"GIRL OF MY DREAMS."

"The Girl of My Dreams" will be shown today at the Wigwam for the last time. It is a picture of little romance, filled with splendid photographic effects, fine situations and has a good plot. Pretty little Billie Rhodes never appeared to better advantage nor one better suited to her distinctive role. It is the attraction of the Wigwam scene. You will like "The Girl of My Dreams."

TEMPERANCE, Dainty Hansen will be seen in "The Sea Flower."—Adv.

LAST DAY OF "SALOME."

Today is the last day of showing of the magnificent spectacular feature, "Salome," which is being presented at the Alhambra, with Theda Bara in the role of the famous Jewish princess, who lured men to their ruin by her fascinating beauty and seductive charms. This big picture has been justly praised by all who have seen it and no one should miss this last opportunity of seeing it.

Tomorrow, dainty Marguerite Clark will be at the Alhambra in "The Rape," one of the most delightful comedy dramas we have ever shown.—Adv.

60 YOKOHAMA BLOCKS BURNED

Fire Loss in Big Japanese

City Estimated at $7-

470,000; Many Suffer.

Yokohama, Japan, April 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—The monetary loss in yesterday's great fire is estimated at 15,000,000 yen, or approximately $7,470,000 under the present rate of exchange. Thousands of people are homeless. The loss of life was two killed and 28 were injured. Sixty blocks in the Japanese quarters were burned, including public buildings and houses. It was the most disastrous conflagration in the history of Yokohama.

Foreigners living in the bluish section of the city witnessed an awesome scene and saw flames rising simultaneously and spreading confusion and terror among the people who vainly struggle to save their belongings. The mayor has started a relief fund for those left destitute.

After having been in his office two days, Gov. O. A. Larrazolo went, Sunday, to his home in Las Vegas, thence last night to El Paso to participate in the welcome home of troops from New Mexico at Ft. Bliss. He will go thence to Albuquerque where he is scheduled to deliver an address at the first state convention of the American Legion of Veterans of the world war, Thursday and that night

CONFERENCE ON PUBLIC LANDS

Larrazolo Urges Governors

Of West to Discuss

Acquiring Lands.

Santa Fe, N. M., April 28.—A conference to be held in Santa Fe early in the summer of all governors of states in the west where the public domain still is in existence is proposed in a letter sent out Saturday night by Gov. O. A. Larrazolo to the governors of Arizona, Colorado, Wyoming, California, Idaho, Washington, Oregon, Nebraska, North and South Dakota, Kansas, Nevada, Oklahoma, Montana and Utah. He says that only by acquiring full title to all federal lands can western states develop good roads, improve schools and do proper justice to soldier settlement plans which they have in contemplation.

The letter is as follows: My Dear Governor: I have no doubt that the people of all other public land states would be glad to have congress pass a law ceding all public lands to the respective states, and this is not only because such procedure would be conformable to the real spirit in which public lands were first acquired by the federal government, but because it would be an act of justice to the states. Yet I believe that there is very little hope of congress ever passing such a law unless it be done at the earnest and insistent request of the people of these states.

Suggests Conference.
"In consultation with some of the leading citizens of my state, we have come to the conclusion that it might be a good idea for the governors of such states to get together in conference, discuss this matter at length and make an understanding with a view of asking congress to pass such a law."

"Pursuant to this idea, I am taking the liberty of addressing this letter to you, a true copy of which goes to the governors of the following states: Arizona, Colorado, Wyoming, Washington, Idaho, Nebraska, Kansas, North Dakota, South Dakota, Oregon, Montana, Utah, Nevada and Oklahoma for the purpose of ascertaining your views on this subject."

"Should you consider it advisable to have such a meeting of governors, may I ask you to kindly express such view to me, stating at the same time your idea as to the best time and place for such a meeting? I might here add that the people of New Mexico would welcome the gathering of the people of these states."
